21 YEARS OF IKUNTJI ARTISTS FESTIVAL is a free artistic, musical and community culture celebration of the Luritja and Pintupi people of Haasts Bluff. Come for the day of stay for the weekend and meet the artists. Experience exhibitions, traditional dancing & singing, spear & boomerang throwing, food stalls, traditional seed beading workshop, concerts, bush tucker, sale day, documentary screening and more. Nestled within the spectacular West MacDonnell Ranges Haasts Bluff is 230km west of Alice Springs and 110 km from Glen Helen Resort.

Camping is $5 per adult per night and kids are free.

For information regarding transport and/or camping contact Ikuntji Artists on 08 8956 8783.

Haasts Bluff is situated on Aboriginal land. This means a permit is required to enter. To apply for a visitor and/or camping permit go to www.clc.org.au
